JOB FUNCTIONS

Interns will assist with set up, staffing, and tear down of attendee registration desk, and all other Seminar events and educational sessions, including off-site tours and/or dinner events. Responsibilities include handling and watching over expensive equipment that will require vigilance and care to prevent damage. Some of this equipment will require lifting and set up with SMA staff direction.

DRESS CODE

Interns are expected to dress “professional casual” both on and off shift. Long pants and collared shirts are appropriate. Jeans, shorts, t-shirts, exercise clothing, and casual tops are not acceptable. Casual and clean comfortable shoes are fine, but no flip-flops, you will be doing a lot of standing and walking.

You are there to represent yourself professionally to 500 potential employers. If you have any doubt whether an item of clothing is appropriate, chances are it is not.

PERSONAL AND PROFESSIONAL ETHICS

Professional behavior is required, on and off duty. We expect you to be on time for work shifts, and demonstrate positive demeanor, and professional language at all times. You are there to network professionally, not personally. Avoid cocktail conversations with members. Keep your topics brief and relevant. Don’t hesitate to ask to be introduced to a member.

The Seminar includes functions where alcohol will be served. You will be given direction at an individual event if it is appropriate to have a drink. SMA will immediately terminate your volunteer services if you are intoxicated or under the influence of any illegal substance, regardless of whether you are working at that time.

After hours noise complaints or hotel violation related reports will not be tolerated. A second complaint will result in you being required to leave the hotel and the Seminar at your own expense.
